

As a rural Minnesota Service Provider, our biggest challenge is providing always-on, broadband connections that is more available, reliable, and economical than what is just now being made by the ILEC's.

Spectrum availability can be difficult in some locations, and any additional unlicensed spectrum will make our jobs as Service Providers easier, and allow us to serve the public's needs better, which is obviously the end goal.

Brad Gass
MNNS.COM